Day 1: Meeting point at Selvaverde Tours in Puerto Misahualli at 8h45 am after your breakfast. Then we will leave in a private vehicle for 2 and a half hours to the Konipare Bridge, 65 kilometers from Misahualli. Prior to the departure in the kayaks, the guide will give general information about the sector and several recommendations. Then, we will continue the trip down the river in the kayaks. On the way, we will make a stop to take a walk to a Saladero of tapirs. Returning to the river will await us a tasteful lunch. We will continue in the kayaks until reaching the Dayuno sector where we will camp the first night on a beautiful white sand beach. Dinner and rest.

Day 2: After breakfast, we will take a walk through virgin jungle to get to a lagoon where birds and monkeys will be observed. This walk will last 3 hours. Return to the river and lunch. In the afternoon, we will continue down the river for about 3 hours until reaching a Waorani community where we will spend 1 or 2 nights in coexistence with the families. Dinner and rest.

Day 3: In the morning, we will walk in the jungle for 3 hours to 4 hours accompanied by a Waorani guide where he will let us know his ancestral customs of hunting, medicinal plants. Return and lunch. After a break in the afternoon, integration with the families where we will learn the use of the blowgun, bamboo spear, making of crafts. Dinner and rest.

Day 4: After breakfast, we will continue the trip in the kayaks down the river until we reach the Ishpingo sector where we will camp for the night. After lunch in the afternoon, walk for 3 hours to 4 hours in the jungle, a highlight of the tour will be the visit of a giant Ceiba tree, observation of monkeys and birds. Return to the campsite, optional sport fishing in the river. Dinner and rest.

Day 5: After breakfast, we will continue the trip in the kayaks. During the navigation you will observe many species of birds that inhabit the banks of the river. We will arrive at the Guamuno sector where we will make another campsite on the banks of the river. We will spend 1 or 2 nights there. In the afternoon, there will be fishing or coordinated activity with tourists, and after dinner, night navigation on the river to observe alligators.

Day 6: At 6 am, we will sail in the kayaks to observe different species of birds, monkeys and turtles. With luck, you might find anaconda. Return to the campsite and breakfast. After a short break, we will raise the camp and we will return by motorized canoe up the river with all the luggage until we reach a sand beach or a Waorani family where we will spend the last night. After dinner, it is possible to walk in the jungle to observe species of toads and frogs, spiders, and insects.
